Notice of Availability for Explanation of Significant Differences for the Parks Reserve Forces Training Area, Dublin, California, Record of Decision PRFTA 02 Site

The U.S. Department of Army (Army) announces the availability of an Explanation of Significant Differences (ESD) adopted for PRFTA 02, Parks Reserve Forces Training Area, Dublin, California. This ESD modifies the remedy selected for soil at Site PRFTA 02 in the Record of Decision (ROD) dated July 5, 2012 (ROD, URS 2012a). The modified remedy documented in the ESD establishes soil cleanup to residential standards versus industrial standards and provides the supporting selected cleanup levels.

This Explanation of Significant Differences provides references to the site history and the selected remedy and information on the proposed adjustment to the remedy for changing the soil cleanup from industrial to residential. The California Department of Toxic Substance Control (DTSC) agrees with the changes proposed in the ESD and provided their approval by co-signing the ESD.

This ESD is documented as “EXPLANATION OF SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES, Site PRFTA 02/Dublin Crossing PRFTA 02 Site Code 202046, Parks Reserve Forces Training Area, Dublin, Ca. (October 2016)”. The ESD will become a part of the Administrative Record file for PRFTA 02 and Information Repository and will be available for public review at the following locations:
